As days grow short, dancers from around the planet visit our city to share their visions

THE WORLD AT OUR FEET

BY ELIZABETH ZIMMER

Canadian choreographer Noémie Lafrance, who's worked magic in a Manhattan stairwell and a parking garage, brings 35 dancers and "special apparitions" to Williamsburg-Greenpoint's long-abandoned MCCARREN PARK POOL (Lorimer Street between Driggs Avenue and Bayard Street, Brooklyn, 718-302-5024) for Agora (September 13 through October 1). The piece has a multi-channel score by Brooks Williams, working with Norm Scott; Charlie Morrow provides a site-specific surround sound installation.
